

Do you have a disability?

If you have a disability, you have the same rights as others.

Please tell us if you have a disability so we can help you access county or Tribal Nation human services benefits and services.

What medical conditions may be disabilities?

A disability is a physical, sensory, or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity.

Types of disabilities may include:

- Diseases like diabetes, epilepsy or cancer
- Learning disorders like dyslexia
- Developmental delays
- Mental health conditions
- Hearing loss or low vision
- Movement restrictions like trouble with walking, reaching or grasping
- History of substance use disorder, although current illegal drug use is not a disability.

If you are asking for or are getting benefits through either a county human services agency or a Tribal Nation, that office will let you know if you have a disability based on information from you and your doctor.

What help is available?

If you have a disability, your county or Tribal Nation can help you by:

- Calling or meeting with you in another place if you are not able to come into the office

- Using a sign language interpreter
- Giving you letters and forms in other formats like computer files, audio recordings, large print or Braille
- Telling you the meaning of the information we give you
- Helping you fill out forms
- Helping you make a plan so you can work, even with your disability
- Sending you to other services that may provide help
- Helping you to appeal agency decisions if you disagree with them.

You will not have to pay extra for help. If you want help, ask your agency as soon as possible. An agency may not be able to accommodate requests made within 48 hours of need.

How does the law protect people with disabilities?

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act are federal laws, and the Minnesota Human Rights Act is a state law. Each gives individuals with disabilities the same legal rights and protections as people without disabilities, including access to public assistance benefits. You will not be denied benefits because you have a disability. Your benefits will not be stopped because of your disability. If your disability makes getting benefits hard for you, your county human services agency or Tribal Nation will help you access all of the programs that are available to you.
